National Chung Cheng University Searches for a New President

The Presidential Search Committee of the National Chung Cheng University (CCU) invites applications and nominations of candidates in its search for the university's sixth president. Beginning on February 1, 2024, the new president is anticipated to hold office for a term of four years.

The following criteria should be met by applicants for the position of President of the National Chung Cheng University:

- I. Presidential candidates should abide by the Act Governing the Appointment of Educators and meet the requirements stipulated in related laws and regulations.
 - A. According to Article 10 of the Act Governing the Appointment of Educators, candidates should meet any one of the requirements in item 1 and item 2 below:
 1. Eligibility (meet any of the following qualifications):
 - (1) Academician at Academia Sinica
 - (2) Professor
 - (3) Prior teaching and academic research experience equivalent to that required of a professor
 2. At least three years of experience, accumulated, as a director in schools, government agencies, or other state-owned or private business entities
 - B. Presidential candidates should not reach the retirement age of 65, as of February 1, 2024. (See Article 33 of the Act Governing the Appointment of Educators.)
- II. Apart from meeting the requirements of the Act Governing the Appointment of Educators, presidential candidates should comply with the following requirements:
 - Upholding the founding goal of CCU and being willing to put CCU's educational philosophies into practice
 - Having noble educational ideals and outstanding administrative skills
 - Having a solid reputation and academic achievements
 - Respecting academic freedom to the fullest extent
 - Possessing the capacity to obtain and make appropriate use of relevant resources
 - Being impartial and independent of all political groups and parties, religions, and for-profit businesses
- III. The presidential candidate approved by the committee and the Ministry of Education shall be appointed by the university as a full-time professor and not be temporarily transferred or jointly appointed.
- IV. Presidential candidates shall be nominated in any of the following ways:
 - Through nomination submitted by members of the CCU Presidential Search Committee
 - Through nomination jointly signed by at least 10 full-time assistant professors of CCU
 - Through nomination jointly signed by at least 5 professors/research fellows or associate professors/research fellows from academic institutions in Taiwan and abroad

- Through nomination submitted by an external academic institution
 - Through nomination proposed by the CCU Alumni Association
 - Through nomination submitted by presidential candidates themselves
- V. Joint nominators should comply with the following principles to nominate a candidate:
- Nominators should sign the joint nomination in person
 - In the application form for presidential candidates, joint nominators must designate the representative nominator.
 - Nominees should not participate in the joint nomination process.
 - Members of the CCU Presidential Search Committee should not participate in any joint nomination in an individual's name.

Presidential candidates should provide the following documents to the committee:

- Presidential Candidate Nominee Information Form
- Presidential Candidate Joint Nomination Form or Presidential Candidate Nomination Form (For the CCU Alumni Association and academic institutions)
- Presidential Candidate Nominee Self-Checklist
- Notification and Letter of Consent for Collection, Processing, and Use of Personal Information

For those who would like to nominate a candidate, please fill out all the required forms and deliver them with relevant documents (in digital format) to the Presidential Search Committee of CCU by postal delivery (receipt as proof), e-mail, or in-person before 5 p.m. on June 12, 2023. No submissions will be accepted after the deadline. Please send the complete version of the required documents within 14 days if they are found to be incomplete.

The nomination forms can be downloaded from the “Presidential Search” section of the CCU Personnel Office website or obtained from the CCU Presidential Search Committee via phone call to the committee.
